Volunteers needed to support the young and vulnerable in custody

VOLUNTEERS from the Yeovil area are being sought to support young people and vulnerable adult detainees who enter police custody.

Somerset County Council's Youth Offending Team is appealing for more volunteers to act as 'Appropriate Adults', helping young people and vulnerable adults understand what is happening to them whilst in police custody and why.

Appropriate adults offer support and ensure the person understands their rights and the police process whilst in custody. They also ensure their health, wellbeing, legal rights and entitlements are in accordance with the Police And Criminal Evidence Act.

Volunteers can state what times and dates they are available for call outs, which could be a day, evening and/or weekends, but should live within a 12-mile radius of the custody unit.

Yeovil has one of the smallest custody units in the county, but Appropriate Adult Volunteers are still needed.

Mark Runacres, head of custody suites in Avon and Somerset, said: "Appropriate Adult volunteers play a key role for young or vulnerable people who are in police custody and have been unable to successfully nominate a family member, friend or other person to attend and support them.

'By representing the interests of the person in police custody, the Appropriate Adult volunteer helps to ensure understanding of the person's rights and enables the custody processes such as explanation of legal rights and completion of an interview to progress.

This assists the person in custody, investigating officer and also custody staff as the availability of an Appropriate Adult volunteer can help to minimise the amount of time spent in police custody.

Without Appropriate Adult volunteers to call on when needed, the custody process would grind to a halt, causing significant negative impact for a group of people who can include the most vulnerable to be detained after arrest.

"I greatly admire and value the Appropriate Adult volunteers already assisting at custody units within Avon and Somerset Constabulary and would welcome others who feel able to as-

A Somerset County Council spokesperson added: "We are grateful to volunteers who give up some of their spare time to help people detained in the police custody suite. Good communication skills, being patient and caring are essential skills. You don't need to have a legal or police background, but experience of working with children and young people, especially those from disadvantaged backgrounds, is de-

"Full training is provided and the next training session is due to take place on Wednesday June 14th."

Hugo no show at East Devon hustings

ing any general election hustings in his East Devon constituency this campaign period, a decision that has upset one of his main rivals

Pulman's View from contacted Sir Hugo's office for comment but had received no reply at the time of going to press. Independent Claire Wright, who is being backed by a website that advises voters how to vote tactically against the Conservatives and was recently endorsed by auam really disappointed that Hugo Swire is refusing to attend hustings during the general election period.

"MPs are supposed to be accountable to constituents and this is a golden opportunity for him to talk about how he plans to represent people if he is re-elected.

"It reflects very badly on him that he is refusing to attend.

"I was looking forward to having a robust debate with him and I can only assume that he is refusing to being challenged by me – I have been regularly holding him to ac-count for the past three years via my blog and through the medial"

All seven of the candidates for the East Devon constituency – which covers Sidmouth and Ottery St Mary - have been invited to attend a hustings event held at the Holy Trinity Church in Exmouth at 7.30pm on May 30th.

A spokesman on behalf of Hugo Swire told the Express & Echo that: "Hugo has decided that, for this election, he will be holding his own public meetings in East Devon in the build-up to polling

Hustings events continue around East Devon and South Somer-set during the countdown to the election, with all five Yeovil candidates attending a session hosted by The Churches of Yeovil at The Gateway, Yeovil, on Thursday, May 25th at 7:30pm. See viewnews.co.uk for updates

Knives amnesty across Somerset

POLICE have released shocking images of hundreds of knives handed in during an amnesty across Somerset recently.

In Yeovil, dozens of bladed weapons were found by officers in a special bin left out for the Avon and Somerset Police stationed surrender bins at ten locations across the county between April 28th and May 8th to tackle knife crime. A total of 198 knives were surrendered over the short period - a significant rise from just 59 weapons surrendered in a similar operation last

Chief Inspector Zoe Chegwyn, force lead for knife crime, said the police force were 'really encouraged' by the number of knives that were surrendered in the bins. "Every knife surrendered is one less knife out on the street, where they can and do cause serious harm," she said. "It's not just the number of knives which is encouraging, but the type.

"There were some nasty-looking machetes and zombie knives left in the bins, which are usually only carried by people wanting to hurt others."

The police force has said it is considering the possibility of placing permanent surrender bins across the area.

Chief Inspector Chegwyn said: "The surrender bins were just a number of actions we took that week to try and reduce the dreadful impact knives can have on individuals, families and com-

She said police cadets also took part in a test purchasing operation to ensure retailers are not breaking the law in selling knives to under-18s, and patrols were put in place in knife 'hotspot' areas.

She added: "We also continue our work in schools with young people, educating them on the dangers of carrying knives and letting them know about actions they can take to potentially

Expanded recycling service rolls out

MORE than 50,000 households in East Devon are just a few weeks away from being able to recycle more items than ever before when a new improved weekly recycling service begins.

The district-wide scheme will be in place from Monday, June 12th, following a successful rollout earlier this year in Exmouth.

council has The added cardboard, plastics, cartons / Tetrapaks and small electrical items to the list that residents can already recycle.

Careful planning has gone in to introducing the new service across the district and with a further 51,000 homes to collect recycling and waste from, the council and its contractors SUEZ are advising that there could be some limited disruption as collections settle down.

The council is appealing to residents to be patient during this period and to contact them if they have concerns or questions. Mark Williams, East Devon District Council's Chief Executive, said: "We are here to our residents help these changes with we have a dedicated team of officers

"We have worked hard with our contractors SUEZ to minimise any disruption, but there will inevitably be a small number of issues initially as everyone gets used to the changes.

The council has been holding an extensive public awareness campaign to promote the changes and thousands of people have been learning more about the new service at a series of information days.

These events are a great opportunity to find out more about the new service and the next events are being held at:

- Axminster Library on Thursday, May 25th from 10am to 12 noon;
- Ottery St Mary Library on Thursday, June 1st from 10am to 1pm;
- Axe Vale Festival on Saturday, June 17th from 10am to 5.30pm.

Further events are planned over the next few weeks and the council will be sending out information as they are organised.

Major drainage works planned for A30 Sherborne Road in July

PLANS for a major engineering scheme in Yeovil are taking shape with teams set to work 24 hours a day to keep disruption to a minimum.
The A30 Sherborne Road is showing significant signs of deterioration and it was announced last year that drainage improvement works were needed.

Drainage work involves deep excavations under the highway to install new pipes and gullies so a 24/7 road closure is required to keep workers and road users safe.

Following extensive investigations and planning alongside South Somerset District Council, Somerset County Council can confirm that work will begin on Tuesday, July 25th, which will take advantage of the school holidays when roads are generally quieter. However, to keep the closure time to a minimum, it has now been agreed that teams will work 24/7. It is hoped to complete the scheme in seven days rather than the three weeks initially estimated. A spokesman for Somerset County Council said: "We fully appreciate these are high impact works and have listened to local concerns and explored a number of different options to finalise this essential scheme. "Initially it looked as though a three-week closure would be required but we're very pleased to have found an alternative solution with 24/7

There's still a lot to do and we'll be liaising with local businesses and residents over the next few weeks before publicising the final

Anyone with any concerns is asked to contact 0300 123 2224 or email countyroads-southsom@somerset.gov.uk

A spokesman for South Somerset District Council added: "We are pleased that SCC will be able to undertake these works on a 24/7 basis to reduce the overall time frame needed to carry out this essential work. Whilst projects of this sort will inevitably cause some inconvenience, being able to reduce the time taken to deliver and also undertake the work during the school holiday period will minimise disruption." The stretch of Sherborne Road in question is showing significant signs of deterioration and highways teams have made 49 visits to temporarily repair cracks and potholes over the past 18 months.

To tackle the structural issues it is necessary to first upgrade the drainage before full resurfacing at a later date (likely to be in winter 2018 with night-time working).

Have your say on local sports pitches

SPORTS clubs, local councils and resdients can have their say on the state of playing pitches in Consultation for the Draft South Somerset Playing Pitch Strategy (PPS) has now begun and interested parties have until Monday, June 12th to respond to South Somerset District

The PPS is used to ensure that outdoor play ing pitches meet the local needs of existing and future residents within South Somerset until Lynda Pincombe, community health and leisure manager at South Somerset District Council, said: "We urge everyone interested to go online to view the draft version of our strategy. The PPS is based on Sport England's 'Playing Pitch Strategy Guidance' and much of the content is informed by our targeted consultation with local stakeholders.

"In particular, the strategy focuses on the provision of football, rugby union, cricket and hockey pitches so we hope to have responses from as many local clubs as possible. This document can be used to support funding applications to improve the quality and quantity of accessible provision so it is important that clubs and other interested parties have their say on the future priorities for the district.

"The PPS is an important strategic document and will be used to protect existing playing pitches and playing fields as well as projecting forward demand.' The draft strategy sets out a number of detailed actions, recommendations and options for pitches which will need to be planned for during the strategy period.

All feedback will be discussed at the Playing Pitch Strategy Steering group - comprising of representatives from Sport England, the Football Association England Hockey, Rugby Football Union, English Cricket Board and council officers - and incorporated into the strategy where appropriate.

All survey responses will be reviewed before proceeding to finalise and adopt the South Somerset Playing Pitch Strategy.

Ham Hill deer shot

ANIMAL lovers have described those responsible for shooting and killing deer at the Ham Hill Country Park near Yeovil as "scum." Countryside rangers at Ham Hill reported that two deer had been shot and killed by people unknown. The rangers, speaking on social media Facebook page, said that the carcasses had been left with the heads removed on the Norton-sub-Hamdon side of Ham Hill. "We have reported it to the police," they added.

"If anyone saw anything please let the ranger team know or advise Avon and Somerset Police quoting crime reference number 201705090275." People can call police on 101 or South Somerset

People can call police on 101 or South Somerset District Council on 01935 462462.

Members of the public have been outraged at the killings and have taken to social media to express their disgust.

"I hope whoever is responsible is found," said one person. "It won't bring back the deer, but I feel it's important for the people who did this to be caught, punished and stopped from doing it again."

Another wrote: "I'm appalled and feel ashamed to be human. I seriously hope that the police are able to find those responsible."

Councillor stands down

BRYMPTON Parish Council is on the lookout for a new councillor following the resignation of long-standing chairman Liz Glaisher.

Anybody who wants an election needs to write to The Returning Officer, South Somerset District Council, Council Offices, Brympton Way, Yeovil, Somerset BA20 2HT. Letters have to be received by Thursday, May 25th.

Liz Glaisher became a member of Brympton Parish Council in May 2003 and had held the position of chairman since January 2006.

Ouch! The mayor loses his chest hair

FUN-LOVING Yeovil Mayor, Cllr Darren Shutler, smiled through the pain last week as he had his chest waxed to raise funds for St Margaret's Somerset Hospice.

The mayor, who previously bravely completed a 15,000ft skydive for charity, probably would rather have jumped out of an aeroplane again than undergo the painful experience of seeing his chest hair peeled off by more-than-willing volunteers.

People paid a £2 donation to have a go at waxing the mayor's chest during St Margaret's annual fete at the Yeovil Hospice in Little Tarrat Lane.

Getting involved in the waxing fun was the vice-chairman of South Somerset District Council, Cllr Tony Capozzoli, and some passing Star Wars Stormtroopers.

St Margaret's Hospice is one of the mayor's chosen charities for the year.

The waxing was overseen by a beauty therapist from The Beauty Barn based at Trent near Sherborne.

Free plant bulbs for town residents

THE annual bulb giveaway from Yeovil's awardwinning floral display is set to take place again.

The event gives residents of South Somerset the opportunity to claim a bag of free bulbs that were used during this year's spring bedding displays.

South Somerset District Council, which creates and maintains the floral displays on behalf of Yeovil Town Council, is inviting people to the bulb giveaway at St John's Churchyard in Yeovil, on Monday, June 5th, from 10am.

Lesley Jelleyman, Yeovil in Bloom Promotions and Marketing Officer at South Somerset District Council said: "Recycling old bulbs forms a key part of the Yeovil in Bloom strategy and helps ensure that more and more floral displays are planted throughout the town making Yeovil an even more beautiful place to live, work or visit.

"Yeovil in Bloom is about communities coming together to create clean, tidy and inspirational spaces, containing art and wildlife areas as well as formal planting."

The bulb giveaway helps towards Yeovil's entry into the Royal Horticultural Society South West in Bloom Competition. Judging for this event will take place on Tuesday, July 12th 2017.

Yeovil won gold in last year's South West in Bloom competition for the eighth time. Yeovil in Bloom also received 'outstanding' in It's Your Neighbourhood awards for Kenmore Drive Residents Association, The Hub and Preston School. 'Thriving' It's Your Neighbourhood awards were also received for the Vanessa Project, West Abbey Care Home and Wyndham Park.

The Yeovil in Bloom initiative has been funded by Yeovil Town Council since 1996, and delivered with the support of South Somerset District Council.

Bugsy cast put 'em up

THE Yeovil Amateur Boxing Club packed a real punch to help the Castaway Theatre Group in preparations for their forthcoming musical show Bugsy Malone.

The show is based on the 1976 British musical gangster comedy film, Bugsy Malone, directed by Alan Parker and featuring only child actors including a 13-year-old Jodie Foster.

The Castaways, pictured, will be performing Bugsy at the Octagon Theatre in Yeovil from Thursday, June 22, through to Saturday, June 24. One of the scenes in the show is about boxing and features the song So

You Wanna Be a Boxer, but with little boxing experience among the young stage performers, Castaways knew who to call – Dave Edmunds, who has been with Yeovil ABC for over 50 years and is still coaching in his 80s.

Lynn Lee Brown, the founder of Castaways, said: "We can't thank Yeovil Amateur Boxing Club enough for being able to give us some expert help at our boxing workshop.

"It was great to have Dave Edmunds, Brad Axe and Caitlyn Hathaway come along to help our performers work on stance, footwork and punches for the boxing scene in Bugsy Malone.

"The children loved it and learnt so much."

Brad has had around 25 fights with Yeovil ABC and the RAF. He was the Western Counties Champion at middleweight in 2015 and represented the RAF at an international competition against Spain in March 2017.

The former Preston School and Yeovil College student joined the RAF in October 2015 as a firefighter.

Resurfacing work on A358 in town centre

ONE of the main routes through Chard town centre is undergoing essential maintenance work for the next three weeks.

Somerset County Council will be resurfacing and improving the A358 Furnham Road as part of its long-term maintenance programme.

This involves removing the old surface of the road to an average depth of 50mm before laying a new material using specialist equipment.

The work affects the stretch of road between the B&Q traffic lights and Thorndun Park Drive, and will be split into two phases.

Preparatory works started yesterday (May 22nd) and are expected to take three weeks – with the workforce in action between 7.30am and 6pm and excluding weekends.

Carriageway resurfacing works will then begin on June 15th and are expected to take five nights.

Due to the narrow width of the road, and to ensure the safety of the workforce and the travelling public, the county council says it will be necessary to close the road during working hours (6pm to 7.30am), with staff available on site to help with any specific requests for access.

A spokesman for the county council explained: "This is vital resurfacing work to improve a busy road near the town centre.

"Although we'll be taking all reasonable steps to minimise disruption, we do appreciate that some inconvenience is unavoidable."

The spokesman added: "Please take note of the details and plan yourn journeys carefully."

■ STUDENTS at Chard's Holyrood Academy were treated to a fun-filled maths workshop recently.

Talented magician and mathematician Barney Maunder-Taylor, right, from the House of Maths entertained and informed the whole of Years 7 and 8. Barney, an Oxford University graduate and a former champion on TV's Countdown, impressed the students with a number of mathematical puzzles and facts.

Using volunteers from the audience, Barney showed students how to calculate magic numbers at speed, predict the weight of a human head and juggle different 3D shapes.

Year 7's Lily Farmer said: "Barney was so funny and got everyone excited about taking part in mathematical experiments. Me and my friends had a really good time!"

In the afternoon, some of Holyrood's most gifted Year 7 and 8 students were invited to take part in a workshop where they performed experiments

Tears and tributes in salute to much-loved museum chairman

CHARD Museum was packed as residents and visitors came together to pay their respects and celebrate the life of former chairman David Ricketts, who died last month.

Members of David's family suggested such an event, as they knew how much the museum had meant to him.

Amanda Broom, a town, district and county councillor as well as a museum trustee, said: "Even the sun smiled on us during the afternoon as first, to a background of total silence, we were entertained by Charlotte and Abi, David's granddaughter and friend, who gave us a delightful rendition of Over the Rainbow, followed by some memories from Charlotte of David as a grandad."

One of the highlights of the event was the presentation, by Cllr Broom, of a bench built by a friend of David's, Chris Brewchorne, and donated by members of the museum.

There were numerous emotional tributes David's memory.

Cllr Broom spoke on behalf of the museum and described how David had been well known in the town, volunteering in several organisations, among them the Guildhall film society, Tourist Information Centre, as a carnival marshal and finally as a trustee and chairman of the museum.

Cllr Broom added: "The highlight of the afternoon though, must surely be the many emotional tributes made to David by his children and grandchildren. There were lots of misty eyes in the audience.

"Donations to a fund in the memory of David can be left at the museum."

She added: "Proceeds will be used to help an organisation that was very close to his heart."

■ THE children of Chard School gave their grandparents and family members an afternoon to remember. Assembled in the chapel with Head of Music Mr Pearson, they performed family favourites such as Grandma (We Love You), The Keeper, Let It Be and A Whole New World. After the choral concert, grandparents visited classrooms and were taken on school tours with their grandchildren. The afternoon was rounded off with tea and a delicious array of cakes in the chapel. Headteacher Sarah Graham said: "Thanks to everyone who supported this very popular event!"

Mayor leads the celebration of town's

Citizens Award

THE annual Ilminster Citizens Award has been presented to somebody who has helped to keep people safe from danger for more than 30

The award - presented to somebody who has worked hard to make the town a better place and who deserves recognition for their efforts – was presented on Tuesday night, May 9th, to Andy Miller, a retained firefighters with 32 years' service to the fire service.

He was nominated for the award by his colleagues and it came as a complete shock to him when he realised that it was him who was going to receive the recognition from the Mayor of Ilminster, Cllr Val Keitch.

The award was presented at Greenfylde First School during Ilminster Town Council's Annual Community Assembly, where the town looks back on the previous 12 months.

The mayor said: "Andy has given 32 years of service to the fire service and through his position as a retained firefighter shown exceptional commitment to the town and the surrounding area.

"As Ilminster Station Commander, Andy has led his crews by example he has given up time with family and friends to keep the fire engine operational and made many other sacrifices to protect the people of Ilminster without them ever really knowing.'

Cllr Keitch added: "More often than not Andy is on call every hour of the week. It is a monumental demonstration of dedication and commitment to stay within five minutes' travel of Ilminster Fire Station and this dedication is not only shown by Andy, but is also a reflection of his family's support.'

Andy's family and many of his fire service colleagues were at the meeting to witness the presentation.

He was literally lost for words, but said that he would like to thank everyone who had been involved in putting his name forward for the award.

"I'm not sure how everyone kept this quiet from me – but it really does mean a lot," he said.

Mayor's donations

THE Mayor of Ilminster spread some happiness among a number of local groups and individuals on Tuesday, May 9th, as she dished out donations during the town's Annual Community Assembly.

It is normal practice for a mayor to support one or two groups or charities during their year in office by holding some fundraising events, but Cllr Keitch said it was "impossible" to select only a couple to back when there were so many valued community organisations in the town.

So she decided to invite applications for a donation of up to £100 and on Tuesday she was able to present 12 cheques totalling nearly £1,000.

The Mayor presented cheques to the Ilminster Swimming Club, Ilminster Air Training Corps, Sunny Ile Pre School, Harlequin Carnival Club, Gemini Carnival Club, Xtreme Carnival Club, Experience Ilminster (Ilminster Midsummer Experience), Iona Davis to help fund her South Africa expedition, Ilminster Scouts, South Somerset Carnival Park Carnival Committee, Gary Clark to help fund his future Disabled Strong Man exploits, and Ilminster Carnival Committee.

All of the recipients thanked the mayor for her donations.

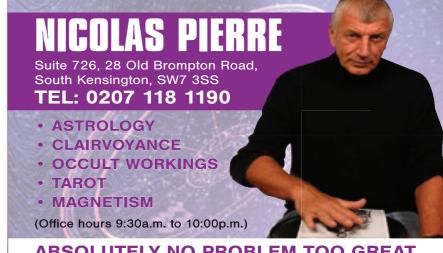

Mayor's Award

WELL-KNOWN Ilminster man Jim Sainsbury was almost lost for words very unusual, it has to be said when he found himself being presented with a Mayor's Award on Tuesday, May 9th.

Mayor of Ilminster, Cllr Val Keitch, presented him with the annual award in recognition of his 50 years of service with Ilminster Cricket Club and his ongoing work with the Heritage of the Ile Trust working hard on a voluntary basis on the committee to contribute to the continued success of the club," said the mayor.

"He is also very involved in the Heritage of the He group and maintains its photographic library. This helps keep alive our local history for future generations.

"Jim contributes much to the life of Ilminster and without such dedicated volunteers our town would be poorer."

The Heritage of the Ile Trust is made up of local people from Ilminster who are keen to preserve the photographic history of the town for the benefit of future generations.

Jim admitted he was surprised at receiving the accolade from the mayor, but was clearly proud as punch. And he took the opportunity to tell people during the presentation at Greenfylde First School as part of Ilminster Town Council's Annual Community Assembly, that he was always looking for old photos of the town.

"The photos don't even have to be really old," he said. "If anyone has any old photos of Ilminster and events in the town from 1970s and 1980s please think about letting us have them to add to the Heritage of the Ile's photographic collection."

£100 for children

SUNNY Ile Preschool – part of Greenfylde First School in Ilminster – were awarded £100 by Cllr Val Keitch, from the Mayor of Ilminster's Charity Fund. Cheryl Herrick, Sunny Ile Preschool leader said: "We are grateful to Cllr Keitch for her kind donation towards our fundraising for our new outdoor resources. We are providing new resources that will help the children learn lifelong skills such as teamwork, problem solving, resilience and negotiation.

"Our current tracking of our children shows that there are certain areas of the curriculum which need focus to help the children develop and learn. We offer a free flow system and our children spend at lot of time outdoors.

"A growing interest in media equipment, such as television, videos and computer games has also contributed to children lives, giving them fewer opportunities to access outdoor spaces or benefit from being outside.

"Outdoor learning complements indoor learning and is equally important. Play and learning that flow seamlessly between indoors and outdoors enable children to make the most of the resources and materials available to them and develop their ideas without unnecessary interruption."

Write approach

ILMINSTER Arts Centre is inviting writers to go on a journey at their latest A Way With Words event next month.

On June 30th, participants will share their own work with an assembled audience in an informal and relaxed setting.

Organiser Angela Huskisson said: "The theme for the event this year is The Journey and this can be interpreted in any way the writer wishes. Entries can be anything that fits this format and theme – all poetry, prose and flash fiction [a complete story in 250 or 500 words] is welcome, but not extracts from longer pieces."

Submitted items should be kept to one page of writing to fit an A4 piece of paper; if using a computer, the font size should be 12 point. Entries must have the writers name marked clearly on it. The deadline is June 23rd; send entries to angihusk1850@gmail.com

If you would like to read, or have your poem or short story read for you, contact Angela on 01460 221138.

Adam runs a marathon for the children

A CREWKERNE man achieved one of his lifetime ambitions by running the London Marathon for charity.

Adam Pattemore, who was raising much-needed funds for Misterton Pre-School and is a member of Crewkerne Running Club, finished the marathon in three hours, 54 minutes 58 seconds.

Adam, who along with his wife Kirsty, are both committee members at the pre-school, said: "It was an amazing experience with a great atmosphere all the way around the route.

"I had set myself a target of three hours 30 minutes, which I was on course for until my feet started blistering after about 20 miles

"However, I am still proud and delighted with my time, especially overcoming the physical and mental challenges of the marathon."

It was Adam's first ever attempt at a marathon distance, and he said: "I have learnt so much from the experience, when I run my next marathon I will take so much from it."

Adam has so far raised nearly £1,500.

He added: "I would like to thank all those who have so far sponsored me and in particular I would like to thank four local businesses, The Windowman, TR Autos, S Martin Building and KS Electrical & Security who have all put down significant donations."

Misterton pre-school manager Wendy Scriven said: "We are all proud and delighted at Adam's achievement and the money he has raised for the pre-school.

"The money raised will be used towards the existing children's outdoor area, which is soon to be renovated, and a water activity for the children."

Misterton Pre-School caters for two to four-year-olds from all around the local area and also feeds children into all local schools in the area.

You can still sponsor Adam at https://mydonate.bt.com/fundrai sers/adampattemore1

Writer's advice

MEMBERS of Crewkerne and District University of the Third Age (U3A) heard on May 8th about the 'write stuff' of being an author from one of Britain's most popular writers.

He is perhaps best known for his Thomas Treviot series of Tudor crime thrillers based on real life mysteries from the archives. He is also a regular presenter on TV and radio.

Not surprisingly, English and history were his favourites at school and Derek, who lives in Devon, went on to study history and theology at Peterhouse, Cambridge.

Royal stories

MEMBERS of a Crewkerne geology group heard how one purchase by Queen Victoria helped boost the Torquay marble industry.

She bought a beautifully decorated goldfinch platter which can now be seen at Torquay Museum.

"The purchase of that platter, plus a visit by Prince Albert and the burgeoning tourist trade, helped the industry to thrive," the museum's project curator Clare Howe told them.

Forty-nine members of Crewkerne & District University of the Third Age (U3A)'s geology group visited the museum on May 9th.

■ THE nationwide armed forces Baton charity, based in Honiton, is launching a new initiative with a specially adapted tandem.

The 'Baton Tandem' is a precision piece of equipment that has flexible adjustment, enabling service personnel who have lost the full use of their legs to challenge themselves and gain a sense of freedom and adventure.

Sitting in the front seat to experience the rush a person can 'hand crank' while their legs are supported.

The person in the rear cycles, steers and changes gear.

The tandem, which has cost the charity £6,000, was specially made in Germany, and recently delivered to the UK.

It will be made available for use by a service person who might want to take on challenges such as Land's End to John O'Groats, whether it is just for the experience or to raise funds for charity, although not necessarily for the Baton.

However, a donation for maintenance would be appreciated by the charity.

Alan Rowe MBE, founder of The Baton, said: "I had seen the benefits of this particular tandem when visiting my friend Ben Parkinson MBE, who sustained numerous injuries, including having both legs amputated, as a result of action in Afghanistan with the Parachute Regiment.

"Ben had been on the same model as the Baton Tandem and told me just how much he had enjoyed the experience. It was at that point we decided to get

"My wife Pauline and I have underwritten the costs of this project so far, but we would welcome donations for this project and any support would be truly welcome in helping people find freedom and explore new horizons."

The tandem project is a real 'Baton Family' effort. Tom Pales, who runs 'Freetrike' in Silverton, placed the order for the tandem for Alan and will provide ongoing support with future maintenance and advice.

Andy Summers, who runs Land Rover Experience West Country is a consistent supporter of The Baton's cause, has kindly offered to store the tandem for the charity, and Phil and Tania Ford, of Affordable Services Removals, offered help and the use of their vans to transport the tandem to LREWC.

Alan Rowe said: "Once again people in Honiton and East Devon are doing their best to support our forces past, present and their families"

School to hold 'fruit picnic' for UNICEF

PUPILS at Honiton Primary School will be holding a 'fruit picnic' this Friday (May 26th) to help change children's lives.

They will join hundreds of schools across the country as they take part in Unicef's 'Day for Change' to raise money to provide life-saving food and care for malnourished children.

Day for Change is Unicef UK's annual fundraising event for schools and, this year, will raise money to help malnourished children grow up healthy and strong.

Around the world, five children die every minute as a result of malnutrition. Malnutrition is responsible for nearly half of all deaths of children under five and millions more children live with the effects for the rest of their lives, because their bodies and brains haven't developed the way they should.

On the day the children will have opportunities to explore what it means to be healthy (in both mind and body) whilst also learning about how a healthy lifestyle supports healthy life choices. To end the day, the children will be holding class picnics; sharing fruit salads and fruit kebabs with their friends and families on our school field.

Nic Lopez said: "At Honiton Primary School we have been supporting Unicef Day for Change for many years now.

"It is a great opportunity for all of our children to understand how they can support children globally whose basic human rights are not being met.

"We are also a very generous school community and this event will raise hundreds of pounds that will go to support the crucial lifesaving efforts of Unicef in Africa."

As well as raising funds, pupils at Honiton Primary School will be learning how nutrition impacts on children's lives and how Unicef is working to help make sure every child gets the nutrition they need.

Remembering when a Grand National winner raced in Haselbury Plucknett

AS READERS watched the Grand National last month, how many of them would have known that there was once a three-mile designated steeplechase course in the countryside around Haselbury Plucknett and Hardington Mandeville, near Crewkerne, on which a National winner once competed?

In April 1866, George Pulman – the founder of Pulman's Weekly News – described a unique occasion when Salamander, the 40-1 winner of that year's event in Liverpool, was transported in a horsebox on the newly built railway horses from around the country.

A SKETCH from memory of Salamander pulling up in front of the stands at Aintree in 1866 by Finch Mason, author of 'Heroes and Heroines of the Grand National'

Up to two thousand spectators were accommodated in a grandstand "painted a delicate blue", and up to 50,000 more were spread out along the course which was "marked out with an immense quantity of nicely made white railing", for the Somerset Open Handicap Steeplechase.

An extensive fairground was laid out beyond the racing enclosure, and the grandstand enclosed a fully glazed restaurant.

The whole area was swept up in the excitement; but the day ended in tragedy for Salamander.

With the same jockey in the saddle that rode him to victory at Aintree – Alec Goodman – Salamander fell and broke his back.

According to the 1907 book Heroes and Heroines of the Grand National, "that Salamander was a real good horse there can be little doubt," and the fatal accident "stopped what looked like a promising career".

Many years later, there was a mural painted in Crewkerne paying tribute to the fallen horse.

The detailed account of the day by George Pulman is accompanied by five other true stories spanning nearly a thousand years of Somerset history in Wulfric of Haselbury and Other Somerset Tales, by local author Roger Bucknell (£12).

The book brings to life Wulfric, the Saxon anchorite priest who lived within St Michael's Church for nearly 30 years in the early 12th century under a Norman lord of the manor, and who was visited by both Henry I and his nephew Stephen. There are also rare details of social life at the time.

A third story covers the near-starvation of the Royalist Portman family of Taunton and London in the English Civil War of the 17th century.

From the 18th century there are tales of coaches from London crossing Salisbury Plain in winter en route to the South West. They call at the George Inn at Crewkerne, where the frozen fingers of the drivers are revived by several brandies.

Then comes the famous Quicksilver Royal Mail coach with its record-breaking average speed of more than 10mph, still commemorated today at the top of Hendford Hill in Yeovil.

Hard times in early Victorian days are brought into focus with the account of a village Bread Charity found- ed in the 1830s , which still survives in restructured form today. The book ends on a happy note with the picture of what a village Christmastide was like in 'The Good Old Days'.

The book, printed by Footprintz of Crewkerne, is available by calling 01460 76450, emailing tinkertailstoo@gmail.com, or visiting either Crewkerne Museum or North Perrott Fruit Farm Shop.

6 Brilliant Outdoor Summer Activities for Kids

www.netmums.com

HURRAH, summer is here! And while we all love the sunshine, it can be an expensive time of year, especially with the kids off school and in need of entertaining. Here are six brilliant summer activities that your children will love ... and that won't blow the budget.

1. Plan a pirates and princesses picnic: There's nothing like a picnic to truly welcome in the summer season.

All children love picnics (and most adults are pretty partial to them too) so dust down the picnic blanket, load up the hamper and find yourselves the perfect place to enjoy some al

Why not make it a little extra special too by adding in some fancy dress fun? Get the kids to choose a theme and go with it ... how about pirates, princesses or Beauty and the Beast.

2. Build a super-cool den: You can build a super-cool den just using sheets and blankets, either in the garden or in your local woods.

Woods and forests are especially good because there's so much natural stuff just lying around that you can use: fallen branches, leaves and bracken for example. Den building in your garden can be a lot more simple but just as much fun. You will need some kind of framework from which to hang blankets or tarpaulin - perhaps between two trees, or hung over the garden furniture. A really simple home made tent-like den is to simply hang a large blanket over the washing line, weighing it to the ground using stones or other heavy items. Then have a tea party inside.

3. Get on your bike: It's a really simple pleasure, but cycling can be so much fun for everyone in the family.

Make sure you choose a safe cycle route and know a good stop-off on the way where you can grab a snack and stretch your legs.

There are lots of fantastic family-friendly routes to try across the UK.

Visit www.netmums.com to check out our dedicated web page on cycling for families, which has everything you need to know about cycling, including details of recommended cycle routes.

4. Take the craft box outside for messy play: There's nothing more fun that getting crafty in the sunshine on a gorgeous summer day.

We've got loads of arts and crafts ideas at www.netmums.com for your kids, tonnes of which are just as easy to do outdoors.

Indeed some of the messier suggestions are better enjoyed in the garden where you don't have to worry about paint splatters on the carpet or walls.

Get some really messy activities going with gloop, papier mache, or coloured water. Or spread out really big sheets of paper (or use lengths of lining paper or lots of newspaper), put out trays of paint and simply let the kids do huge handprint and footprint pictures - a really fun way to get messy outdoors.

5. Do a festival: Nothing says summer like a festival: they make a great option for summer fun with your family, and thankfully there are lots of child-friendly festivals to choose from.

You can also throw your own festival in your garden - pick your playlist, grab some fancy dress and have a dance.

And don't forget the BBQ for some festivalstyle burgers or hot dogs.

6. Hit the beach... or a city beach: When the surf's up head to the beach and ride the waves, skim stones on the water or paddle on the shore along Britain's beautiful coastline.

And if you're living in the heart of the city, fear not - these days city beaches are popping up everywhere. Cool and urban and just minutes away from home. Nice!

THE wood burning Alfa Pizza ovens are incredibly versatile and can be used to cook virtually anything that can be cooked in an oven or on a BBQ. Each oven comes with a free BBQ kit so that once the oven has been used to cook pizzas the embers of the fire are used to BBQ food. The high specification construction of stainless steel and insulation means that the oven heats up to cooking temperature in about 20-30 minutes. Another advantage is that the ovens have wheels so they can be easily moved around the garden to where ever you wish to use them. The ovens can also be left outside all year round or moved into storage for the winter.

LOCAL HEART, GLOBAL REPUTATION

FOR a company that's tucked away amidst the rolling hills of East Devon – just outside the quiet village of Shute - Lyme Bay Winery are causing quite the stir on the world drinks stage!

Renowned for their innovative range of high-quality fruit wines, meads, liqueurs, ciders and English wines, Lyme Bay's products are sold throughout the UK; in Farm shops, delis, food halls and abroad; as far afield as Canada!

Local Heart

Founded in 1993, Lyme Bay Winery set out to change the way West Country cider was made and perceived, with their Jack Ratt ciders - named after notorious West Country smuggler Jack Rattenbury. This connection to their local area remains at the heart of what they do; from the locally-sourced ingredients in their award-winning products, to their support of 73, mostly local, charity initiatives in 2016 and, of course, their thirty-strong winery team; the majority of whom live within the Axe Valley. The winery also plays a key role in promoting local tourism; successfully attracting over 10,000 visitors to its winery shop last year alone!

Global Reputation

Today, Lyme Bay are also a company with a global reputation. Consistently their drinks are recognised for their quality on the world stage, winning award after award in international competitions such as the Decanter World Wine Awards and the International Cider Challenge Cup.

However, with all their international successes, Lyme Bay Winery are clear about where their roots lie; "As a company, we are very excited about how much we have achieved but we are also extremely proud of where we have come from" asserted James Lambert, Managing Director.

Shop Manager, Sarah English, who cycles to work from nearby Musbury added; "one of the great perks of having such established local roots is the loyal backing we benefit from; whether it's those that stumble upon us for the first time, or our regulars who have been buying cider from us for nearly 25 years, the local support is fantastic". With 'English Wine Week' promotions in full swing and product tasting available throughout the range, if you are yet to visit the Winery, now is the perfect time!

Alasdair Beatson in concert

ALASDAIR BEATSON'S reputation as a musician of the highest order precedes him. This gifted young Scottish pianist, who is also Concerts in the West's patron, delivers consistently brilliant performances that have earned him glowing reviews from the toughest music critics.

Renowned as a dedicated musician and a 'canny and uncompromising' programmer, Beatson is unafraid to explore more exotic pieces and his programme for his Concerts in the West 1-3 June tour, which features a selection by Beethoven, Bartok, Debussy, Schumann, Dohnayi and Satie, reflects this bold but successful approach.

Alasdair's previous Concerts in the West performances has shown him to be an intense artiste, totally involved in his choice of works. He seeks to overcome an audience's preconceived ideas through the power of music and his concerts undoubtedly leave a lasting impression. His individual approach and magical interpretations all contribute to building an excellent rapport with the audience.

As well as having an affinity with the classical repertoire, especially the music of Schumann (featured in this tour's programme) and Fauré, he also enjoys exploring more exotic arrangements and for Concerts in the West he will, as part of the programme for the four concerts, be playing Debussy's Images Book 2, which reflects his passion for pictures - "I love pictures almost as much as music" - and his desire to paint pictures with his music.

Alasdair is a prolific soloist and chamber musician and his 2017 concerts include London's Wigmore Hall and Kings Place, Zurich's Tonhalle, the West Cork Chamber Music Festival and festivals such as Ryedale, Resonances and Ernen. This year a recording of 19th century music for horn and piano, featuring Alasdair with Alec Frank-Gemmill will be released on the BIS Records label.

Alasdair Beatson plays at Ilminster Arts Centre at the Meeting House on Friday, June 2nd at 8pm. Tickets are £15 (pre-show supper available for £14 but must be pre-booked), available by calling 01460 55783 or by visiting www.themeetinghouse.org.uk

Alasdair then plays at The Dance
House, North Street, Crewkerne on Saturday, June 3rd at 7.30pm. Tickets are £15 available from the town hall.

A call to art

ILMINSTER Arts Centre is inviting artists to submit work for one of Somerset's most keenly anticipated artistic events, the annual Ilminster Open Exhibition 2017. The competition, which is sponsored by Branston of Seavington, is open to amateur and professional artists, with entries invited in the following media - paintings, original prints, drawings, sculpture and ceramics (but not photography).

The deadline for entries is Friday, July 21st and selected artworks will be displayed at Ilminster Arts Centre from August 7th to September 1st. The competition carries a total

The competition carries a total prize pot of £850, including a 3D award and a "Visitors' Choice" award, in addition to the coveted 1st prize and joint 2nd prizes. Prizewinning artists also win the opportunity to take part in a special prizewinners' exhibition at the Arts Centre in 2018.

exhibition at the Arts Centre in 2018. The winning artist of last year's competition, Jane Burden says, "Winning the 2016 liminster Open was a fantastic experience and a real vote of confidence for my work - particularly as my entry was an unusual wall hung textile and ceramic piece. The Ilminster Open is a wonderful opportunity for artists to show their work to a wide audience and benefit from one of their generous prizes - I'm very glad I entered my work and would thoroughly recommend doing so to other artists!"

The Ilminster Open is noted for the high standard of work that it attracts, and is a powerful measure of the artistic talent in the region. Exhibition organiser Ann Palmer says, "We are very grateful to Branston for their continued support of this event and look forward to seeing what new discoveries this year's entries bring."

Entry forms can be picked up from the Arts Centre or downloaded from their website (www.themeetinghouse.org.uk).

English Civil War 1644

A Day in the Life of Colyton Townsfolk

Vile Ministers and Poor Silly Creatures!

THE famous Taunton Garrison Living History Group will return to Devon's 'most rebellious town' to recreate the turbulent times of the English Civil War c1644. The scene is summer 1644 and the historic conflict between Roundheads and Cavaliers has been raging since 1642. Against a backdrop of rampaging opposing forces, Colyton suffered continual pillaging and plundering. Shops broken up, cloth carried away, cottages looted, livestock stolen, reveling and general disorderly conduct. Enough! Cried the good folk of Colyton – we imagine the townsfolk rose up in protest, arming themselves the best they could and took up defensive positions upon news of returning troops.

To help set the scene, an entertaining evening event has been arranged. Come along and hear stories based on some local incidents in the West Country during the Civil War, telling of rival communities as they defended themselves against marauding Roundheads and Cavaliers. A 17th century version of Dad's Army!

Clubmen, Martyrs and a King playing hide and seek!

Thursday, 25th May at 7.30pm in St Andrew's Church, Colyton

An amusing and light hearted talk, together with slide presentation will be given by Mr Bruce Upton from Bridport Museum. Admission free. All welcome.

Comedy comes to Honiton

A NEW comedy club is being trialled in Honiton next week and organisers are calling on the people of the town to make the first night a sell out success.

Westcountry comedian Tom Glover, who already hosts nights in Lyme Regis and Bridport, is bringing a new comedy club to the Three Tuns in Honiton on Saturday night (May 27) with the hope of making it a regular monthly event in the town's calendar.

The opening night will feature a hand picked selection of the south west's best up and coming acts headlined by former South West Comedian of the Year Luke Honnoraty.

Luke, who is resident MC at the Exeter Bierkeller comedy night, has garnered a cult following in the south west since he burst onto the scene in 2010 thanks to his unique take on the world as a working class man who now finds himself trying to fit in with the middle classes around him.

In recent years Luke has headlined Newquay's Boardmasters festival, had a sell out run at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival and has recently supported both Katherine Ryan and Joel Dommett on their south west tour dates.

Joining Luke will be Richard James and Adam Money. Rich was a finalist in the prestigious South Coast Comedian of the Year, hosted the Eminent Banter showcase at the Edinburgh Fringe festival and has some great stories of life living in the westcountry. Adam Money is a comedy tour de force who delivers his set at breakneck speed and has audiences breathless with laughter.

Hosting the night will be Tom Glover himself an experienced compere who hosts a number of regular nights across the south west. Tom has been working on the UK comedy circuit since 2010 and regualry gigs all over the country.

"If we get a decent crowd in for this first comedy night then I hope to make it a regular event and bring comics down from all over the country," he said.

"Honiton is large town with a strong community spirit so I'm surprised there isn't already a regular comedy club in the town, I'm sure there will be an audience for it. We started a small night up in Lyme Regis last year and that has gone regis last year and that has gone from strength to strength and we now regularly get TV names coming to close the show, I hope we can do the same here." he added.

Tickets for this opening night show on Saturday, May 27th, are just $2 and gradiable from the horset.

just £8 and available from the bar at the Three Tuns or can be reserved on 01404 47947. Doors open at 7:30pm and the show starts at 8pm.

THE SWISS Air Force's superb Patrouille Suisse national display team has confirmed that it will participate in RNAS Yeovilton International Air Day's flying display on Saturday 8 July. Making its first visit to RNAS Yeovilton in a decade, Patrouille Suisse's mesmerising performance will undoubtedly be one of the memorable highlights at the Somerset airshow.

Equipped with six Northrop F-5E Tiger IIs, painted in the Swiss national colours of red and white, including a large painted flag on the aircraft's underside, the team's National pride is both evident and prominent. Regarded as one of the best display teams in Europe, the Patrouille Suisse performs with great precision and panache. Its routine is based on smooth formation manoeuvres, interspersed with dramatic solo and duo passes and includes the outstanding 'Tunnel' – one of the most exciting manoeuvres flown by any national team.

The Patrouille Suisse was created in 1964, in celebration of the 50th Anniversary of the Swiss Air Force. Initially equipped with the beloved Hawker Hunter, which it flew for over 30 years, it converted to the Tiger IIs in 1995. Its continued operation of front line combat aircraft throughout its existence marks it as unique on the European Airshow circuit, in contrast to the training Hawks of the Red Arrows for example.

Further display team, fast jet and historic aircraft participation news will be announced in due course. Discounted advance tickets can be purchased at www.royalnavy.mod.uk/yeoviltonairday

Scratchwork Theatre's Great Train Robbery

AWARD-WINNING Scratchworks debut their sell-out theatre show, 'Great Train Robbery', at The Beehive Honiton this June

After receiving VAULT's 'Festival Spirit Award' 2017, critically acclaimed Scratchworks Theatre Company heads to The Beehive, Honiton with their fast, fun and fierce family show.

It's 1963: the heist of the century is underway. Signals are scrambled, phone lines cut and millions of pounds in cash – stolen. Five days later the first clues were found, the gang busted and the rest - history. Or was it? In their latest theatrical offering, Scratchworks take on this classic tale - with a twist. What about the ones that got away? What if the four who were never caught were actually women?

Scratchworks is an all-fe-

Scratchworks is an all-female theatre ensemble from Devon. Using diverse theatrical styles, the company creates original stories with their unique blend of live music, dynamic movement and theatrical trickery.

Since forming in 2013, Scratchworks has enjoyed sell-out shows at Edinburgh Festival Fringe, VAULT Festival London, Exeter's Bike Wardrobe Theatre, gathering a loyal following throughout the South West. After The Beehive, Great Train Robbery will continue its UK tour to Greenwich Theatre, Darwen Library Theatre, The Boat Shed in Exeter and The Wardrobe Theatre, Bristol.

Scratchworks perform Great Train Robbery' at The Beehive, Honiton on Saturday, June 17th at 7pm. For more details and to book call 01404 384050 or visit www.beehivehoniton.co.uk

A classic bank holiday weekend

ALWAYS a favourite day out with locals and visitors, Pecorama in Beer is making extra special preparations for this coming Bank Holiday Weekend. On Sunday 28 May Pecorama is hosting its annual Vintage and Classic Car Rally with almost 250 exhibitors booked this year. The Rally evolved from the mid-1990s Steam Festival Days at Pecorama to become a standalone event, growing annually in popularity, with vehicles this year travelling from as far affield as Gloucestershire, Glamorgan, Hampshire and Cornwall to take part.

It's always a lively and colourful affair, with deck chairs, sun brollies and picnic baskets scattered amongst the cherished vehicles. There's always much chattering and camera clicking as both visitors and participants alike inspect and admire the magnificent array of vehicles displayed in the Pecorama car parks.

The Vintage and Classic Vehicle Rally on Sunday is in addition to Pecorama's already popular attractions including the award winning 'Beer Heights Light Railway' with miniature gauge steam locomotives carrying passengers on a mile-long ride through 8 acres of beautiful gardens with sculptures, set against stunning coastal views; plus, the world famous Peco Model Railway Exhibition and shop offering everything for the casual trainenthusiast right up to the most dedicated railway modeller.

There are numerous refreshment options on site including the Garden Room family restaurant serving main meals and snacks, The Whistle Stop serving BBQ burgers and sausages, The Junction serving authentic Italian pizza and an original Orion Pullman carriage serving afternoon cream teas.

Every afternoon from Saturday, May 27th until Sunda, Juney 4th, there's entrainment with family favourites including Elfic the Jester, A Wizard Called Ozz, Ben the Juggler and Spangles the Clown; plus, younger and more active visitors can enjoy a Pirate ship and three outdoor play areas, a zip wire, crazy golf and the 'Play Station' indoor soft play area. Pecorama even has its very own loveable railway bear, Teddy Mac, and you can read about his adventures and look for him on his special trail around the gardens.

Finally, visitors can unwind at an exhibition of paintings in water colour and acrylic by local artist Vicky Morgan; explore compact and beautiful gardens linked by scented walkways, water features and stunning stonework; then try to find the 'Secret Garden' or take a stroll to Wildway Park nature trail and check out 'Crawlie Hall Bug Hotel'!

Tickets for entry, including annual membership and special events can be purchased from the website at www.pecorama.co.uk where special offers and discounts are available.

Comedy Club 4Kids is a hilarious event for the whole family

SINCE 2005, Comedy Club 4 Kids has been getting the best stand-ups and sketch acts from the international circuit to do their thing for an audience of children (aged six+) and their families but without the rude bits!

It has been described by The Guardian as: "A highlight for children in recent years, giving them a taste of some of the biggest names in comedy, with the fun, rowdy feel of a real comedy club."

A decade later, the company has expanded from one London residency to being country-wide, running shows all over the UK from Bury to Bridport, even producing a book on how to write and perform stand-up.

The show is family friendly, but without any patronising idiocy.

In fact, it's just like a normal comedy club, but it's on in the day, kids are allowed in, and thus there is a higher than usual chance of heckles like: "Why is that your face!?"

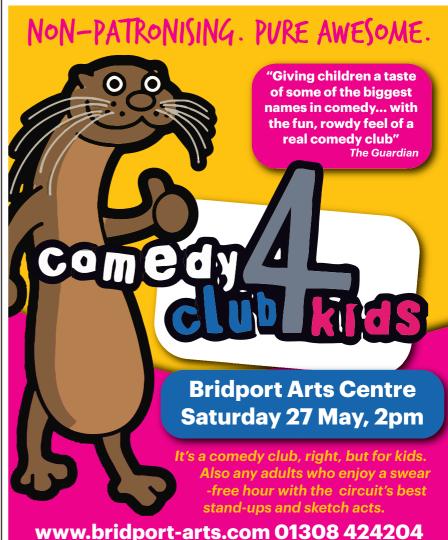

Comedy Club 4Kids will take place at Bridport Arts Centre on Saturday, May 27th, 2pm

£8/£6 or £25 for a family ticket

For more information about the event or to book, please visit www.bridport-arts.com or call the box office on 01308 424204

Property View — The key to finding your perfect home

A TEAM of five estate agents got up early on a Sunday morning to run the Bridport 10K to support their two charities of the year.

Jeremy Smith, Trudi Gumbrell, Dan Magee, Andrea Proudfoot and Kate Wiscombe were running for GO Girls! who support women affected by gynae cancers and Mosaic, a charity who support bereaved children.

Hilary Maxwell, Chair of GO Girls said "We were delighted to be at the event to spur the team on – there were many runners, but the Symonds & Sampson team stood out – to us they were all winners - their support to both us and Mosaic has been incredible -a real demonstration of what businesses can do to support local causes. GO Girls! are working so hard to help support women affected by gynae cancers – ovarian cancer hav ing some of the lowest of all survival rates – and we are determined to give women as much support as we can.'

Mark Lewis Head of Agency added "We are immensely proud of the team that entered and knowing that our runners were there to support two such worthy causes was a great motivator"

The 10K course wound from the coach station in Bridport and back again. Smith, Residential Partner of the Symonds & Sampson Beaminster office and one of Sunday's runners said: "There were some tricky hills that we had perhaps not anticipated, so I think we felt duly challenged"

Teresa Wolff, Vice Chair of GO Girls expressed her thanks to the team stating "It was worth the early Sunday morning start - we are immensely grateful to the runners, there was a great atmosphere and it just goes to show how communities can get together to support worthy causes and get fit at the same time.'

To find out more about the work of the GO Girls, visit their website at www.goggirlssupport.org and Mosaic at www.mosaicfamilysupport.org.uk/

Prospect House, Hursey

JEREMY Smith, Partner at the award winning office of Symonds & Sampson in Beaminster has just brought to the market a substantial detached property which lies in a small hamlet on the outskirts of Broadwindsor. Jeremy commented 'such opportunities rarely arise to buyer properties in this area requiring limited modernisation, therefore we advise early viewing of this property which is priced to sell at £475,000 for the freehold'

The accommodation itself is arranged over two floors as follows:- Hall, 16 dining room, kitchen, 22' dual aspect living room and utility room. On the first floor is four bedrooms, family bathroom and separate w.c.

A particular feature of this property are the grounds on which it stands and they comprise large lawned areas to the rear with an abundance of mature trees, pond, beds and borders etc.

At the front are further gardens with mature trees, extensive parking and a double garage.

Please contact us on 01308 863100 for further information or to arrange a viewing.

World premiere of a new GTI: First up! GTI is a tribute to the original GTI

A CIRCLE closes 41 years after the debut of the first Golf GTI: at this year's GTI Meet at Lake Wörthersee (24 to 27 May), Volkswagen is presenting a compact, sporty car very much in the spirit of the original GTI.

The new up! GTI. The concept and power output of the 85 kW / 115 PS up! are broadly in line with the Golf GTI MkI presented in 1976 that had 81 kW / 110 PS. The near-production concept car pays tribute to this icon.

With compact dimensions, a low weight, a powerful engine, sports running gear and the typical insignia of a GTI (including red stripes in the radiator grille, seat covers in "clark" tartan pattern). This sporty small car will certainly bring a new dimension of driving fun to the compact A typical GTI feature is the sophisticated sports running gear. It gives the car the agility akin to that of a go-kart, yet it also offers a high level of comfort. The production version of the up! GTI will be launched into the market in early 2018.

building a bridge that spans four decades: when the first GTI was launched in the 1970s it democratised access to fast roads around the world - especially the overtaking lane of German motorways. Where large saloons and expensive sports cars had previously set the pace, the new compact Volkswagen suddenly stirred up the field. The red stripe in the radiator grille, the black double stripes across the side sills and behind, the black stripe on the tailgate immediately identified this Volkswagen as a GTI. Its 110 PS powered a kerb weight of just 810 kg and accelerated it to 100 km/h in 9.0 seconds. Top speed: 182 km/h. The colours for the market launch: "mars red" and "diamond silver". Later, white and black also became established as GTI colours.

The new up! GTI continues the creed of the lightweight and nofrills sports car with a compact forfrom outside and inside similar in size to the original GTI. It is driven by a turbocharged engine (TSI) with powerful 230 Nm torque. The key data do indeed read like a Golf GTI MkI catapulted into the present day. Weight: 997 kg (significantly high-strength steels and more airbags). Vmax: 197 km/h. 0-100 km/h: 8.8 seconds. Colours: classic once again and typical of the GTI - the plain colours "tornado red" and "pure white" and the metallic colours "dark silver", "black pearl" and – as a new GTI colour - "costa azul" (blue).

The most powerful up! to date is immediately recognisable with its typical GTI insignia. At the front for instance the red stripe across the radiator grille with honeycomb pattern. Integrated above it is the GTI logo. Here the up! cites the archetypal GTI with features such as the double stripes across the wide side sill panels. The exterior mirror caps are in high-gloss black; the 17-inch alloy wheels have also been completely redesigned. They have a particularly dashing look in the wheel housings because the up! GTI features sports running gear, lowering the body by 15 mm. GTI features also characterise the rear: here, among other things, a red strip as well as a larger roof edge spoiler provides for greater downforce on the rear axle for optimised handling performance at higher tures as a leather-trimmed sport steering wheel, a GTI gear knob and the legendary "clark" seat pattern. The fact is: this GTI does not iust look like one – it also drives like one. A new original.

SJBC Chairman Mike Rawe commented: "I'm delighted to be involved with our members - they're such a great crowd who willingly they offer their help not only with preparation of the green and general maintenance but also on occasions such as the Presidential matches.

'There has been a decrease in number of bowlers in Somerset Bowls but we have been able to attract four extra players this season. I like to believe this is partly due to the friendly and welcoming atmosphere we have at the

HONITON with John Pawley
THE Weather played a leading role in happenings at the Club this week. The seniors' match against visiting SIDMOUTH was cut short when the fog descended.

Keen to redress a loss at Sidmouth, Mike Sennitt's team were just ahead when the hooter sounded. The Tuesday mixed, and the ladies 36-hole event on Wednesday also had to be postponed.

Happily, the Seniors first Open of the year – the Pairs – started in glo-rious sunshine on Friday and, apart from a heavy hail shower midway, was generally played in good

A total of 188 players from Cornwall, Devon Dorset and Somerset took part with prizes given to home and away teams, down to fifth place with an overall winner. Additional prizes for nearest the pin, and also the cross, were added to by bottles of wine for birdies at sponsored holes, and the usual 2s competition.

Grateful thanks were given to Alan Rowe, Tim Avery, Paul Hill, Blam-phayne Sawmills and David Rogers for their support. Two raffles were run during the day, with gifts pro-vided by members, the Otter Brewery and Seaton Tramway, and raised over £350.

The halfway hut provided refreshment and that raised a further £150 all going to the designated local charities for this year - Trip and the Memory Cafe.

The overall winners with 45pts were the Blake brothers, Peter & George. For the Honiton teams, next, but only on count-back, were Dave Maggs & Ray Wills with Pete Morgan & Phil Deacon following with 44.

Duncan Hepburn & Gerry Bolton had 43, Mike Watts & Charles Doherty 41, ahead on count-back of Nick Mitchell & John Locke. Keith Lloyd was nearest the cross on the 18th and Fred Thomas received a bottle of whisky being nearest the pin on the 12th.

Visiting teams from the Fingle Glen, Weymouth, Whitsand Bay and Royal North Devon Clubs filled the places in the away section.

Elizabeth Ward won Silver Division in the Devon Past Lady Captains competition at Okehampton. Continuing the good theme, on Sat-urday Sue Ritchie and Janet Hughes were away at Dainton Park in the Daily Mail foursomes competition, and won 2up to move into round five.

Home quarter final ahead as rain disrupts Warks clash

Wednesday and both Somerset and Middlesex claimed a point apiece as the Royal London One-Day Cup group matches came to a damp end.

The point means that Somerset have qualified for a home quarter-final against Nottinghamshire Outlaws on Tuesday, June 13th (11am start).

The draw for the semi-finals was also made, with Somerset facing a trip to Essex if they win the match against the Outlaws.

This fixture would be played on Friday, June 16th and shown live on Sky Sports (1.30pm start) - both matches have a reserve day in place.

Matthew Maynard, Somerset Director of Cricket, said on the club's website: "We're delighted that we've made the knockout stages with a home tie. "It's a tough game isn't it? They've progressed and played some good cricket in their group, and we know they're a very dangerous side full of internationals.

'But playing at home is going to be an advantage - we saw that last year when we performed really well in the quarter final.

So we're looking forward to that game, but in the meantime we've got a good number of Championship matches that we need to focus on."

And so after a break of almost a month Somerset returned to red ball action with a four-day County Championship match against Warwick-shire, another of the season's slow starters, at Taunton starting on Fri-

■ MILESTONE: Marcus Trescothick clocked up his 25,000th run for Somerset as he completed his 50th century for the county.

Skipper and former England batsman Ian Bell fell for just 8 to Craig Overton as Warks finished the day on 93 for 3 with Jamie Overton returning figures of 5-0-17-2 while Jack Leach, who received his County cap from for-ber Vic Marks, bowled his 8.5 overs for iust nine runs

Rain played an even bigger hand on Saturday with just 37 balls bowled.

Play didn't get underway until 2.45pm and former England batsman Jonathan Trott duly completed his half-century. Trott, unbeaten on 50, survived a vehement LBW appeal in Craig Overton first ball of the day the score reached 124 for 3 off 39 overs when the umpires Alex Wharf and Paul Baldwin brought the players off for bad light and the rains returned.

Thankfully a full day's play was possible on Sunday (day three) when Trott went on to compile a superb 175 as the visitors posted 413 at 3.63 an over.

Top performers with the ball for the Cidermen were Jamie Overton (21-2-76-3), Roelof van der Merwe (17.4-78-3) and Jack Leach (28-12-70-2).

When they eventually got to bat Somerset slipped to 94 for 4 with skipper Tom Abell (8) still struggling to find any semblance of form (10 runs from five inns) and new signing Steve Davies (7) still to pass 20 in his new
